Autumn Selections

Pumpkin Spice: Of course! This rooibos herbal blend has a vibrant red color & features a blend of actual pumpkin flavors plus cinnamon, cloves, & nutmeg.

Pumpkin Crème: A rich base of China black tea with the flavors of pumpkin & sweet crème. Pick your pumpkin!

Apple Cinnamon: Reminiscent of fall in New England, this blended is exactly as it sounds & a very comforting black tea!

Celebration: Based on traditional English flavors, this irresistible blend of black tea, apricot, hazelnut, & cinnamon spice is perfect for gatherings with friends & family.

Boston: A flavorful blend of black tea, cranberry, & almond flavors, Boston tea was inspired by the famous bogs south of New England's 'city on a hill'.

Autumn Leaves: A black tea blend with cranberries, apples, warm cinnamon, & marigold flowers, making it the perfect tea to sip on cool autumn days!

Cranberry Crème: Rich, deep black tea kissed with the flavors of cranberries & crème.

Black

True “Tea” is from Camellia sinensis, a species of evergreen shrubs or small trees in the flowering plant family Theaceae whose leaves and leaf buds are used to produce tea. Black teas range in favor from light-bodied Darjeeling to full bodied Assams.

Organic Earl Grey Supreme: For the tea connoisseur this is a higher grade of teas along with the addition of Silver Tips.

Victorian London Fog: the winning blend in Harney Tea’s customer creation contest! Black tea, oolong tea, bergamot oil, lavender, vanilla flavor.

Vanilla Hazelnut Chai: The deep, woody flavor of hazelnut combined with creamy, sweet vanilla & classic Chai spices creates a pleasantly warm, familiar cup of tea.

Black Cask Bourbon: A new tea from Harney & Sons, a combination black tea with the rich flavors of finely aged bourbon. The result is stunning with prominent bourbon notes of vanilla, caramel & smoky oak-cask layered with a smoky base. Perfect for sipping slow & steady, as a bourbon should be Queen Catherine: a blend of three Chinese black teas (Keemun, Panyang & Yunnan), in honor of Queen Catherine of Braganza, who introduced her love of tea to the British. This blend is featured in the Museum of Tea in Hangzhou, China. The flavors are a blend of dark honey, unsweetened cocoa & hints of spice.

Rooibos

Also known as red tea or red bush tea.

*Made using leaves from a shrub called Aspalathus linearis, usually grown on the western coast of South Africa. This is an herbal tisane.
(Pronounced ROY-bus)*

Rooibos Chai: Organic Rooibos Chai brings together caffeine-free rooibos, with sweet Indian spices of clove, cardamom, & cinnamon.

African Autumn: The base of African Autumn, an herbal blend. Loaded with antioxidants, you will love the brightness of the rooibos accented by cranberry & citrus.

Green

Worldwide, more green than black tea is consumed. Green tea is considered to have antioxidants & nutrients great for health & wellness!

Pear Green: Green tea leaves dance with the flavor of ripe, juicy pears. A little sweet to the taste!

Tokyo: This is a delightful green tea blend with bright bancha, added savory flavors of toasted sesame seeds & a swirl of sweet caramel. The result is a smooth & refreshing brew that's just dessert enough to be indulgent in the best way.

Orange Vanilla Cream: A green alternative to the black counterpart that is reminiscent of an Orange Cream-cicle from the ice cream truck!

Organic Green: An option that's enjoyable & energizing without any extras. No fuss or frills to be found here—only the delicious, smooth flavors, & pleasing aromas of a fine green tea. A delightful addition to your afternoon, whether you take it with or without sugar.

White

One of the most delicate varieties due to minimal processing. Leaves are harvested before fully opening, when young buds are still covered by fine white hairs, hence the “white”. Subtle flavors & health benefits like green tea.

Earl Grey White: Chinese Mutan White tea with natural lemony Bergamot, a lighter alternative to a black Earl Grey.

Mutan White: an abundance of silvery white buds & green leaves. It is light & sweet with vegetal flavors, & comes from Fuan in northern Fujian Province, China. Kosher.

White Peach: Just like it sounds, a premium Harney white tea infused with peach flavor.
