Clara J's has adopted the "Ohio Restaurant Promise" which combines all the mandatory restrictions from the State of Ohio and the rigorous recommendations from the Ohio Restaurant Association to ensure the absolute best experience for our team and guests.

- We continue to be proactive in maintaining safe sanitation practices with all team members carefully following the high safety and sanitation standards required to operate a food service business in Ohio, and specifically Lucas County. Currently all staff have completed the ServSafe® Food Handler class and certification, and all chefs are current in their ServSafe Manager Food Protection Certifications, as well as each holds an Ohio Department of Health Certification in Food Protection.
- All team members continue to perform a daily symptom assessment and stay at home if they are symptomatic.
- All team members are wearing facial coverings. We request that our guests wear face masks as well, before and after your tea and meal.
- All team members frequently wash their hands between tasks. We also use single-use gloves for handling ready-to-eat food as specified by the Lucas County Health Department.
- We are maintaining social distancing per the guidelines of the CDC and State of Ohio.
- All cash or credit card transactions will be handled by the front desk staff, to allow servers to maintain a higher degree of sanitation.
- Hand sanitizer will be available at each table, the front desk and server station, and hand sinks are available in the restrooms.
- We clean and sanitize regularly, including all high touch areas at least every two hours. As well as tabletops, chairs, & fresh linens between each seating.
- Self-service items, sweeteners, salt & pepper, have been removed from tables, but are available upon request.
- Menus are single use only, then quarantined for 5 days.
- We are committed to the "Ohio Restaurant Promise" so everyone understands & meets the steps we must take to keep our community safe.

Thank you for joining us at Clara J's, where every day is a Holiday!
